Prayer Book Society Conference

8 - 10 September 2022

Liverpool Hope University

Booking deadline 8 August

Please book early to avoid disappointment

Non-members welcome

About the conference

Following the inevitable cancellation of the 2020 and 2021 conferences, we are looking forward to gathering at Liverpool Hope University for the conference programme originally planned for 2020. Our excellent speakers will help us to explore the continuing relevance of the Book of Common Prayer in a variety of contexts, including prison and university chaplaincies, and theological colleges.

The conference opens with Sung Evensong at 5.30pm on Thursday, 8 September, with arrivals and registration from 4.00pm. We depart after lunch on the Saturday. Holy Communion will be celebrated on Saturday morning when the preacher will be the Revd Dr Jo Kershaw, Tutor in Liturgy at the College of the Resurrection, Mirfield. The Society's Annual General Meeting will be held at 2.30pm on the Friday.

There is ample parking on the university campus. The registration area, chapel, dining area and lecture theatre are all at ground level and in the same area, with overnight accommodation a short distance away. Breakfast and lunch will be self-service, with dinner served at tables. A campus plan, final programme, and other necessary information will be circulated ahead of the conference.

We hope you will be able to join us for an uplifting time of worship, learning and fellowship.

Conference Bursaries

We are once again offering a limited number of bursaries for clergy, ordinands and people under 30 to attend the full residential conference for a fee of only £50, or £25 for non-residents.

To apply for a bursary, please e-mail pbs.admin@pbs.org.uk (or apply in writing to Copyhold Farm) before 31 July 2022. Applicants should state their qualification for a bursary, eg. 'First year ordinand at Wycliffe Hall'.

It is expected that recipients of Conference bursaries will become full members of the Prayer Book Society. The recommended annual subscription is £28.

We are dependent on the generosity of our members to make this possible. If you are booking for the conference and would like to make an additional donation towards the bursary fund, please tick the appropriate box on the next page.
